Privatisation of Education

*175. SHRI K. R. MALKANI: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) the new policies of privatisation of education as reported in the Press on Februry, 18, 1995;

(b) what exactly does Government propose to do to encourage private initiative and voluntary efforts in the field of education; and

(c) whether Government propose to make all donations to private educational institutions tax-free?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI MADHAVRAO SCINDIA): (a) to (c) The Government policy in regard to involvement of private sector is enunciated in the National Policy on Education, 1986 as updated in 1992. Inter alia, the Policy envisages that the nation as a whole will assume the responsibility of providing resource support for implementing programmes of educational transformation, reducing disparity, univeralisation of elementary education, adult literacy, scientific and technological research etc. The Policy further provides that non-Government and voluntary effort including social activist groups will be encouraged subject to proper management. In particular an alternative system will be devised to involve private and voluntary effort in technical and professional education in conformity with accepted norms and goals. Since 1993-94, Section 80 G of the Income-tax Act provides for 100 per cent deduction for donations made to universities and institutions of national importance. In the Budget 1995-96, the Income-tax Act is proposed to be amended to allow 100 per cent deduction for donation made to the Zilla Saksharata Samitis for primary and adult education.
